

RESOLUTION 77-5

Encomium for the City of Bloomington Street Department

WHEREAS, Bloomington has been experiencing the most severe winter in memory, and

WHEREAS, as a result of this winter, deep snowdrifts and icy streets have threatened to be a perilous and frightening experience for many citizens, and

WHEREAS, the twenty-six employees of the City of Bloomington's Street Department have been working day and night each week in bitter cold to make the City roads safe for travel, and have been lauded for their excellent performance throughout the state, and

WHEREAS, the 1,672 overtime hours worked by the Department have been performed when overtime is not required under their contract, and when they could have justifiably chosen to stay home,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, MONROE COUNTY, INDIANA THAT:

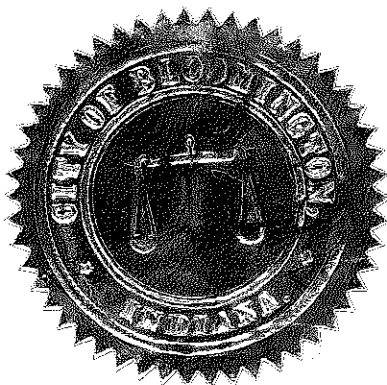

The Common Council of the City of Bloomington expresses its gratitude and gives many thanks to the Street Department for their wonderful work on the City's streets during this snowy winter of 1977.

PASSED and ADOPTED by the Common Council of the City of Bloomington upon this 2 day of February, 1977.

Thomas O Middleton M.D.

Thomas O Middleton, President
Bloomington Common Council

THIS RESOLUTION signed and approved by me upon the day of February, 1977.

Francis X. McCloskey, Mayor
City of Bloomington
